

Brandon L. Halseide

Brandon Halseide is a Senior Consultant with Freeman & Mills, a consulting firm offering services in the areas of accounting, finance, economics and business practices and procedures.

Mr. Halseide has experience with matters in the following areas: antitrust and trade regulation; breach of contract; breach of fiduciary duty, business interruption and insurance recovery, business valuation, contract accounting, false advertising, financial and fraud investigations, intellectual property including patents, copyrights and trademarks; investment and securities, lender liability, lost earnings, lost profits; post-acquisition and earn-out disputes; profit participation and royalties; rights of publicity; shareholder and partnership disputes; and unfair competition.

Mr. Halseide's industry experience is broad and spans industries as diverse as fashion licensing, healthcare, construction and real estate, media and entertainment, aerospace, and finance.

Prior to joining Freeman & Mills, Mr. Halseide was a summer analyst at First Q Capital, a long-short equity hedge fund based in Newport Beach, where he gained experience in financial modeling, company and industry analysis, and database management. He also served as a four-year research assistant at The Lowe Institute of Political Economy at Claremont McKenna College where he applied econometric techniques in macroeconomic research and modeling.

Mr. Halseide earned a B.A. in economics and accounting from Claremont McKenna College.

CONTACT:

(213) 576-1824

bhalseide@freemanmills.com