

Charlene Podlipna is a shareholder of Freeman & Mills, Inc., a consulting firm offering services in the areas of accounting, finance, economics and business practices and procedures.

Ms. Podlipna has provided litigation support services for over thirteen years, working with counsel in civil litigation, arbitration and mediation. She has testified at trial, arbitration, and in depositions. Ms. Podlipna has experience with matters in the following areas: damages associated with breach of contract or breach of fiduciary duty claims; damages related to trademark and copyright infringement; lost earnings associated with wrongful terminations, wrongful death or personal injuries; fraud investigations; the determination of whether transactions were recorded in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and professional malpractice litigation.

Prior to joining Freeman & Mills, Ms. Podlipna was a consultant at Resources Global Professionals where she worked on various accounting engagements, including financial statement audits and reviews of the internal controls of publicly held companies. Prior to Resources Global Professionals, Ms. Podlipna was a senior consultant at CCH Incorporated, a leading tax and accounting software company, where she provided training for and helped implement audit software at CPA firms. Prior to joining CCH Incorporated, she provided litigation support services as a consultant at Gursey, Schneider & Co., LLP and performed and supervised financial statement audits at Arthur Andersen LLP, generally for clients in the healthcare and manufacturing industries.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2016 - Present	Vice President, Freeman & Mills, Inc.
2006 – 2015	Senior Consultant, Freeman & Mills, Inc.
2004 – 2006	Consultant, Resources Global Professionals
2001 – 2004	Senior Software Consultant, CCH Incorporated
1999 – 2001	Litigation Consultant, Gursey, Schneider & Co., LLP
1996 – 1999	Senior Auditor, Arthur Andersen LLP

PRESENTATIONS

“Michael Jackson: The Wrongful Death Case Against AEG” – California Society of CPA’s Economic Damages Section (2015)

“Minkow in the Mix: How a Joint Venture Dispute Led to Stock Price Litigation” – California Society of CPA’s Economic Damages Section (2014)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“AICPA”)
- California Society of Certified Public Accountants (“CalCPA”)
 - Forensic Services, Economic Damages Section

Ms. Podlipna earned a B.S. in accounting from the University of Southern California. She is a Certified Public Accountant licensed in California since 2000. She is also Certified in Financial Forensics by the AICPA. Ms. Podlipna is Treasurer of the CalCPA's Economic Damages Section for the 2016-2018 term.

CONTACT:

(213) 576-1834

cpodlipna@freemanmills.com