

MATTHEW S. FERRANTE, CPA

Matthew Ferrante is a Senior Consultant of the firm of Freeman & Mills, a consulting firm offering services in the areas of accounting, finance, economics and business practices and procedures.

Mr. Ferrante has experience with matters in the following areas: lost earnings associated with defamation, discrimination, wrongful termination, wrongful death, and personal injury; lost profits associated with breach of contract, business interruption, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and malpractice claims; damages associated with trademark, trade dress, copyright infringement, false advertising, and unfair business practice claims; forensic investigations in matters of fraud or misappropriation; bankruptcy and insolvency matters; trust and estate matters; profit participation and royalty disputes; and shareholder and partnership disputes. His industry experience includes construction, real estate development and management, financial services, retail, manufacturing, entertainment, and healthcare.

Mr. Ferrante has previously testified in deposition.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2018 – Present	Senior Consultant, Freeman & Mills
2013 – 2018	Consultant, Freeman & Mills
2010 – 2013	Analyst, Freeman & Mills

PRESENTATIONS

“Complex Business Interruption Claims Following a Natural Disaster: A Hurricane Katrina Case Study” – California Society of Certified Public Accountants (2016).

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“AICPA”)
- California Society of Certified Public Accountants (“CalCPA”)

Mr. Ferrante earned a B.A. in Economics-Accounting and History from Claremont McKenna College. He is a Certified Public Accountant licensed in California since 2013.

CONTACT:

(213) 576-1829
mferrante@freemanmills.com