

Matthew Zachery

Matthew Zachery is an analyst with Freeman & Mills, a consulting firm offering services in the areas of accounting, finance, economics and business practices and procedures.

Mr. Zachery has experience with matters involving financial modeling, forensic investigations of fraud and asset misappropriation, financial statement analysis, and damages analysis for breach of contract and business interruptions. His industry experience includes insurance, real estate development and management, manufacturing, and entertainment.

Prior to joining Freeman & Mills, Mr. Zachery was a member of the UCSB Investment Advisory Committee, an undergraduate-run investment committee managing a substantial portion of student body funds on behalf of UCSB's Associated Students. There he conducted investment research and analysis, as well as provided input related to investment decisions.

Mr. Zachery earned a B.A. in Economics with honors from the University of California Santa Barbara.

CONTACT:

(213) 576-1818

mzachery@freemanmills.com